Sign in Progress Page This page displays a progress bar that indicates the status of the operation. To view detailed status, click the View details option. To continue, click Next.

This page reports the success or failure of the import and create database operations, showing the success or failure of each action. Any action that encountered an error will have a link in the Result column. Click the link to view a report of the error for that action.

Results Page

Click Close to close the wizard.

Export a Data-tier Application

See Also Import a BACPAC file to create a new Azure SQL database Data-tier Applications

Recommended content

Export a database to a BACPAC file - Azure SQL Database & Azure SQL Managed Instance

Export a Data-tier Application

Submit and view feedback for

7 This page

This product

Export a Data-tier Application - SQL Server

Export a database to a BACPAC file using the Azure portal or a CLI SQL Server dacpac extension - Azure Data Studio Learn how to install and launch the Data-tier Application Wizard, which makes it easy to deploy and extract dacpac files, and import and export bacpac files. SqlPackage - SQL Server Learn how to automate database development tasks with SqlPackage. View examples and available parameters, properties, and SQLCMD variables. Show more ∨ Feedback

☆ Theme Previous Versions Blog Contribute Privacy Terms of Use Trademarks © Microsoft 2023

S English (United States)

Download PDF

🜎 View all page feedback 🗈